EVALUATION OUTLINE AND ANALYSIS:

The following document presents a detailed evaluation and advisory assessment of the academic qualifications of Mr. *. According to the official transcripts, Mr. Panguluri first earned his three-year Bachelor of Commerce degree from Nagarjuna University, India, with the degree awarded in June 1998. This accomplishment laid a solid foundation in business and commerce.

Building on this, Mr. Panguluri pursued a two-year Master of Commerce degree at Acharya Nagarjuna University (formerly known as Nagarjuna University), further deepening his expertise in the field. This degree was also conferred in December 2001, reflecting his commitment to advancing his academic knowledge.

Continuing his academic journey, Mr. Panguluri obtained a two-year Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Acharya Nagarjuna University, with the degree awarded in March 2003. This advanced degree signifies a comprehensive understanding of business management and leadership.

Based on these academic credentials, it is my professional judgment that Mr. 's educational qualifications are comparable to a U.S. Master of Business Administration (MBA) from an institution accredited in the United States.
