U.S. EQUIVALENCY SUMMARY

Doctor of Philosophy in Statistics from a regionally accredited institution of higher education in the United States

EVALUATION OUTLINE AND ANALYSIS:

The following document constitutes an in-depth analysis and advisory assessment of the academic qualifications held by Professor's Name. As delineated herein, Client's Name received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics at Oregon State University in Corvallis, OR, in June 2018 after completing the four-year program. Subsequently, he completed a two-year program at Western Governors University in Millcreek, UT, until June 2022 when he was granted a Master of Science degree in Data Analytics. Finally, he completed the doctoral program at Selinus University of Science and Literature in London, United Kingdom, on September 20, 2024, and was awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Statistics.

Based on these academic achievements, my professional assessment is that Client's Name holds educational qualifications equivalent to a Doctor of Philosophy in Statistics from a regionally accredited institution of higher education in the United States
